-----Yardley, PA, September 1, 2010

State Representative Steve Santarsiero and the Bucks County Performing Arts Center (BCPAC) once again are inviting music lovers and the local community to join them for wine and hors d'oeuvres, with live music, an exciting Silent Auction, and special guests, at their 2nd Annual Fundraiser. The event will celebrate BCPAC's upcoming 2010-2011 Concert Series (its 33rd Season), and will occur on Thursday, September 16, 2010, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. It will be held at the lovely Crossing Vineyards and Winery (www.crossingvineyards.com), at 1853 Wrightstown Road in Washington Crossing, PA. Requested contribution is $50 per person. Come drink Crossing Vineyards' delicious wines, and support a valuable local organization devoted to performing arts excellence.

The Silent Auction, chaired by Greg Caiola, Board Member, along with Nancy VanDerBas, Board President, will feature such items as a Vacation at a lovely home in Vermont, Free Golf Lessons and a Round of Golf at Makefield Highlands, Gift Certificates to New York Hair and The Skin Studio, tickets to both the Kimmel Center and the Curtis Institute of Music, Crystal wine glasses from Pink Daisy, Gift Baskets from leading area vendors, and many other exciting items.

One of our special guests will be Jill Whelan, who now lives in Yardley. She is probably best known for her role in the hit television series The Love Boat. In the series she played Vicki Stubing, the daughter of Capt. Stubing (played by Gavin MacLeod). Come and meet her.

Music will be provided by The Bailey Trio - Brent Bailey on keyboards and his very talented sons, Patrick on percussion and Sean on woodwinds.

Food will be provided by McCaffrey's Gourmet Catering.

Please RSVP by September 7 by calling BCPAC: 215-493-3010, or emailing BCPAC: info@bcpac.org.
