

Press Release-
June 30, 2011

BUCKS COUNTY PERFORMING ARTS CENTER (BCPAC) ANNOUNCES
ITS EXCITING NEW LINE-UP OF OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES
(for Every One's Taste)
FOR THE UPCOMING 2011-2012 CONCERT SEASON

Please see our website for details

IN ADDITION

Yardley, Pa, June, 2011

Sally Anne Haulman becomes
Director of Corporate Development for
The Bucks County Performing Arts Center

Sally Anne Haulman has joined the Bucks County Performing Arts Center to become its Director of Corporate Development. Ms. Haulman, a well known business woman in the area, is the owner of Slim & Tone, a health club and physical fitness center in Yardley.

Ms. Haulman has long admired the Bucks County Performing Arts Center and its 33 year history of bringing the Performing Arts to the Yardley-Lower Makefield area and its many contributions to the Pennsbury School District. Having studied music during her growing up years, she looks forward to raising corporate funds to help insure that the Performing Arts Center grows and prospers into the future.

Mark: Please keep "Previous Seasons Press Information below for the following:

2010-2011 Season
Press Releases

2009-2010 Season
Press Releases

You can remove the rest.